COUNTY OFFICIALS CELEBRATE IMPROVEMENTS TO TWO HISTORIC BUILDINGS

WHAT: Gwinnett County officials will celebrate the improvements at the Lawrenceville Female Seminary and the historic Isaac Adair House with a ribbon cutting and open house at the shared site.

About $1.055 million from the 2009 SPLOST program were used to provide ADA accessibility to both structures, a courtyard, fountain, restroom building, storage for programming supplies, landscaping, bus parking, and other site improvements. The renovations to the site will create better access to the buildings and promote greater use for school field trips, community meetings and events.

WHEN: Tuesday, July 18 at 4:30 p.m.

WHO: Gwinnett County Recreation Authority Chairman Dr. Steve Flynt will emcee the event. Board of Commissioners Chairman Charlotte Nash, District 2 Commissioner Lynette Howard, and District 4 Commissioner John Heard will give remarks. City of Lawrenceville Mayor Judy Jordan Johnson will also attend and provide remarks.

WHERE: 455 South Perry Street, Lawrenceville Ga., 30046
