GWINNETT APPLIES FOR RESURFACING FUNDING

(Lawrenceville, Ga., Nov. 5, 2013) – Gwinnett would receive more than $4 million in road resurfacing funds next year if the state DOT approves a grant application commissioners submitted on Tuesday. The Local Maintenance and Improvement Grant would provide $4.47 million to cover almost 74 percent of the cost while 2009 SPLOST funds would be used to pay for the County's local match of about $1.6 million.

Gwinnett Transportation Director Kim Conroy said, "This work includes more than four dozen different roads that are in need of resurfacing." Major projects include 3.3 miles of Cruse Road, 1.8 miles of Hamilton Mill Parkway, 2.4 miles of Fence Road, 2.4 miles of Oak Road, and 3.4 miles of Killian Hill Road. Many smaller resurfacing projects would also be funded.

Contracts for the work would open for bids next spring if the state approves its share of the cost. "These LMIG grants help us leverage SPLOST funds to keep roads in Gwinnett in good shape," said Conroy.
