BOARD APPROVES SAFETY AND ALIGNMENT PROJECT AT INTERSECTION OF KILGORE, SOUTH BOGAN ROADS

(Lawrenceville, Ga., Dec. 8, 2016) – The Gwinnett County Board of Commissioners on Tuesday awarded a construction contract to realign Kilgore Road at its intersection with South Bogan Road near Buford. The safety and alignment project also includes traffic signal installations and the addition of left-turn lanes on both roads.

“This project will improve the grade, alignment and traffic flow at this intersection,” said District 4 Commissioner John Heard. “Road improvement projects like this one along with all of our other efforts continue to make Gwinnett County the best place to do business in the country.”

Commissioners approved the $1.17 million construction contract with CMES Inc., the lowest of four responsive bidders. Funding comes from the 2014 SPLOST program.
