

Chickens 101

Foundations for a Successful Backyard Flock

Join us for a virtual learning program

Wednesday, February 15 | 6:00pm – 7:00pm

Are you thinking about owning poultry? Are you a new or even an experienced owner? Learn the A to Z's of keeping backyard chickens, and even a few things skilled chicken owners wish they knew before owning birds. Dr. Casey Ritz from the Department of Poultry Science at the University of Georgia shares his knowledge, including a Q&A session after the program.
