

The Elisha Winn House

is the earliest home in Gwinnett County and was where Gwinnett County government started in 1818. The first election was held here, and the house and barn were used as courtrooms. Thankfully one of the Winn's 13 children, Judge Richard Winn, preserved Gwinnett County's history through his writings.

Can You Spot the Differences?

