

Game of Graces

was a popular activity for young girls during the early 1800s. The game was invented in France and was played by young ladies during the 18th and 19th centuries. It was a way for young ladies to have fun and get exercise.