Rental property enforcements strengthens

Last month, the Gwinnett Board of Commissioners amended the County's ordinances to strengthen enforcement on residential rental properties by adopting the International Property Maintenance Code, following the thorough review of the proposal presented in February 2023.

The adopted code, along with its associated amendments, establishes minimum standards for interior conditions at residential rental properties. It focuses on key areas, such as structural maintenance, lighting, ventilation and occupancy, plumbing, heating and electricity, and fire safety.

This policy update is aimed at enhancing the safety and quality of residential rental properties and enables Gwinnett Code Enforcement officers to work directly with tenants. The new amendment goes into effect on July 31.

AROUND GWINNETT

Gwinnett's water quality gets even better!

To enhance water quality monitoring, the County will install new sample piping, sample pumps, and water quality monitoring equipment at the Shoal Creek Filter Plant. This filter plant produces more than 40 million gallons of drinking water daily. The new sample lines will offer more accurate, reliable, and representative water samples and reduce collection time to allow any water quality issues to be addressed quickly. Reeves Young LLC was awarded the $2.2 million contract. To learn more about Gwinnett's water quality, visit GwinnettWaterWords.com.

Gwinnett County awarded a total sum of $400,000 to Good Samaritan Health Center of Gwinnett, Hope Clinic, Positive Impact Health Center, and Behavioral Health of Georgia to treat patients with chronic illnesses and help them avoid emergency room visits and hospitalizations.

PROTECTING OUR RESOURCES

Maintain your detention pond

As summer rains start to fall, remember the importance of maintaining detention ponds. These ponds temporarily hold stormwater runoff then slowly release it over time, helping to protect our environment and our communities from flooding. However, if detention ponds are not properly maintained, they can lose their effectiveness. Catch pond problems early with these maintenance tips:

- Prevent trees from growing on the dam
- Keep the area free of trash and debris
- Clean up debris from your yard
- Check for holes or erosion

For more information on what to look for during a self-inspection and how to address problems, please visit Gwinnetth2o.com.

PUBLIC SAFETY

Stay safe during a thunderstorm

Ignoring thunderstorms is tempting because they are extremely common in Georgia and affect relatively small areas when compared to hurricanes and winter storms. Despite their smaller size, thunderstorms can still be dangerous. They can bring strong winds, lightning, tornadoes, hail, and flash flooding. Here are some tips to help you prepare for and stay safe during a thunderstorm:

- Remove dead or rotting trees and branches that could fall and cause damage
- Postpone any outdoor activities when a thunderstorm is approaching
- Unplug appliances and other electrical items
- Shutter your windows and secure outside doors
- Use a battery-powered NOAA weather radio for local updates

The existing gym and building renovations will include new flooring, lighting, goals, and more. The project will also include the addition of outdoor basketball courts, parking lot expansion, the conversion of the multipurpose field to synthetic turf, and a new press box and maintenance compound.

The community recreation center and gym renovation project will be funded by the 2017 SPLIST program and will not exceed $10 million. Additionally, the multipurpose field project will not exceed $1.7 million.
