Re: Gwinnett County Code of Ethics Disclosure Verification

Dear Ms. King:

In accordance with the Sections 54-28, 54-32 and 54-36 of the Gwinnett County Code of Ethics, I am writing to verify disclosure of a potential conflict of interest regarding three related applications that have been filed with the Gwinnett County Planning and Development Department and will appear on an upcoming Board of Commissioners' agenda. Specifically, the cases are RZC 2023-00021, SUP 2023-00044 and SUP 2023-00053, Applicant/Owner Paradise Evangelist Association Inc., Tax Parcel R6263 002A, 2800 Duluth Highway, Duluth, Georgia, 9.45 acres, C-1/R-100 to O-I for a Senior Living Facility.

The initial disclosure was made on the record at the Tuesday, September 26, 2023 meeting of the Board of Commissioners. The nature of the potential conflict is that I had a previous business relationship a company that provided consulting services to Om Duggal, a principal of Diplomat Infraprop Consultants, who provided consulting services for the above-referenced owner/applicant. While that relationship ended on September 30, 2022 in an abundance of caution, when these matters are called, I will be abstaining from any discussion, debate, deliberation or vote on these matters.

Sincerely,

Kirkland Carden
