Note: The Voter Registrations and Elections Division cannot guarantee that your organization will be assigned to your preferred polling location. When possible, poll officials are assigned to their preferred location; however if the location is fully staffed, your organization may be asked to work at a different location. In addition, members may not all be assigned to the same polling location.

Thank you for your interest in the Adopt-a-Poll Program. Once your application has been approved, your organization will need to assign a coordinator and recruit 5 to 10 individuals to serve as poll officials.

Each individual must complete a poll official application online at www.gwinnettcountyjobs.com.

In addition, poll officials must meet specific requirements, including online training. Some officials will require in-person training prior to the elections. Poll officials will be paid individually for their service and may earn $75 to $300 depending on their position.
