This Week

I-85 Study Public Meeting | FREE!

February 8 from 9:00am to 11:00am. Tell us about your commute on I-85 at a series of public meetings. The Georgia Department of Transportation and Gwinnett County are partnering to conduct a comprehensive corridor study along I-85 between I-285 and I-985. The study area is roughly 18 miles long and is primarily located within Gwinnett County, with a small portion in DeKalb County. The study will propose solutions for the corridor to reduce congestion, enhance traffic operations, and improve safety. Learn more at 85study.com. George Pierce Park, 55 Buford Highway, Suwanee, and February 11 from 6:00pm to 8:00pm, Lilburn Activity Building, 788 Hillcrest Road, Lilburn.

Black History Showcase | FREE!

February 5 from 6:30pm to 8:30pm. Commemorate Black History Month by enjoying a historical presentation on the civil rights movement and participating in a stimulating conversation about this time in history. Light refreshments included. OneStop Norcross, 5030 Georgia Belle Court, Norcross.

Voting education event | FREE!

February 6 from 6:00pm to 8:30pm. Gwinnett District 4 Commissioner Marlene Fosque is hosting a community engagement event on voter education to answer election-related questions and let residents interact with the state's new voting equipment. Gwinnett County Voter Registrations and Elections staff and a representative from the Secretary of State's Office will provide remarks about topics including provisional ballots, absentee and advance voting, and navigating the Secretary of State's website. The event will feature demonstrations of two sets of the new voting equipment. After the demonstration, attendees will be able to interact with the equipment and have their questions answered by elections professionals. Also, staff will be present to register new voters. Gwinnett Justice and Administration Center, 75 Langley Drive, Lawrenceville.
