Register for a Wireside Chat to learn about the transportation referendum

On July 31, metro Atlanta residents will have the opportunity to vote on a referendum that will fund $8.5 billion in transportation improvements through a regional one percent sales tax. The Atlanta Regional Commission will host a series of 12 Wireside Chats over six evenings in June to help residents understand what projects are on the list and how the penny tax would impact their community. Local officials will be on the phone to answer questions during each chat.

How to register

In order to participate, simply register your name and phone number at www.wiresidechats.com and be available at the designated time on the phone number you provide. With more than 150 projects on the list, you won't want to miss this opportunity to learn the facts and make an educated decision on July 31.

The Gwinnett Wireside Chat with Gwinnett County Board Chairman Charlotte Nash and Norcross Mayor Bucky Johnson will be June 7 at 6:15pm.
