

NEWS

for Neighborhoods

A newsletter for Gwinnett County homeowners

July 14, 2022

Greetings!

As a resident of Gwinnett County, you know there is always a lot going on in the community. Read this newsletter to stay up-to-date on the latest news from your County government.

Gwinnett County Government would appreciate your help keeping your neighbors informed by sharing the following information through your homeowner association newsletter, website, and emails and by talking to your friends and family.

What's new on TV Gwinnett?

Gwinnett County brings you the latest news and happenings about your community through Eye on Gwinnett, our weekly news program.

What you'll see in this episode:

- County expands Gwinnett Police and View Point Health mental health partnership
- Get ready for the Household Hazardous Waste Collection Day
- District Attorney's Office launches inaugural DA and Investigator Mentorship Program

Find other Eye on Gwinnett episodes on our Facebook and Twitter pages, or watch them on TVGwinnett.com.

Board holds public hearings on proposed General Fund Millage Rate

The Gwinnett Board of Commissioners is considering keeping the general fund millage rate the same as last year at 6.95 mills. The last of three public hearings will be held Monday, July 18 at 6:30pm in the auditorium of the Gwinnett Justice and Administration Center, located at 75 Langley Drive in Lawrenceville.

In addition to the public hearings, commissioners are accepting online comments about the proposed 2022 millage rates. Residents can submit their comments using the online comment form by 9:00pm on July 18 and learn more about their property taxes. The millage rates will be adopted during the Board of Commissioners regularly scheduled meeting on Tuesday, July 19 at 2:00pm.

District 1 Commissioner Carden hosting town hall

Share your your questions, concerns, and ideas at a town hall hosted by District 1 Commissioner Kirkland Carden. During the town halls, Commissioner Carden will share information about Annual Notices of Assessment, which are mailed to property owners each year, and how to understand them. He'll also discuss how the millage rate, which the Board sets each July, affects property taxes.

Attend the town hall Friday, July 15 at 7:00pm at Pinckneyville Park in Peachtree Corners. The town hall will also stream on Facebook Live. Follow the County's Facebook page to tune in.

Household Hazardous Waste Collection set for July 16

Gwinnett Water Resources and Gwinnett Clean and Beautiful are partnering once again to help you safely dispose of household hazardous waste products around your home. Drop off items this Saturday, July 16 from 8:00am to 11:00am at the Gwinnett County Fairgrounds.

Accepted items include pesticides, batteries, spray paint, and more. Find a complete list of acceptable items and more details from Gwinnett Clean and Beautiful. The Gwinnett County Fairgrounds are located at 2405 Sugarloaf Parkway in Lawrenceville.

Attend the Transforming Gwinnett Transportation event

Learn how Gwinnett Transportation keeps you moving to your next destination at the free Transforming Gwinnett Transportation event Saturday, July 16 from 11:00am to 2:00pm at the Lois Lane Pavilion at Alexander Park. Residents of all ages can look forward to music, food, face painting, games.

The event will also serve as an information session to explore the services and programs available from Gwinnett Transportation. Learn about upcoming transportation projects — including Special Purpose Local Option Sales Tax projects — and share your feedback for the forthcoming comprehensive transportation and transit development plans. For more information, visit GwinnettTransportation.com or contact Gwinnett Transportation at 770.822.7400.

Gwinnett Police to hold Operation Children Thrive back-to-school supply drive

This back-to-school season, Gwinnett Police and the Gwinnett Sheriff's Office want to ensure students return to school prepared! Gwinnett Police will hold the annual Operation Children Thrive back-to-school supply drive. Donations will be accepted through Monday, July 25 at Gwinnett Police Headquarters, Training Center, and all precinct lobbies.

The Gwinnett County Sheriff's Office will also host their second annual Back to School event Saturday, July 30 from 11:00am to 3:00pm at the Gwinnett County Fairgrounds, located at 2405 Sugarloaf Parkway in Lawrenceville. The Sheriff's Office will provide students with free book bags and school supplies.

Gwinnett celebrates Parks and Recreation Month

Happy Park and Recreation Month! All month long we're celebrating our award-winning parks and recreational facilities and the professionals who help make them great. Gwinnett is hosting a variety of events throughout the county to encourage people to reflect on the value park and recreation professionals bring to our vibrant communities. We hope you'll celebrate with us!

Take a tour of the Gwinnett Justice and Administration Center

You are invited to tour the Gwinnett Justice and Administration Center on Friday, July 29 from 10:00am to 1:30pm During the tour, you will have an opportunity to become more familiar with the County's administrative and courts building, interact with County officials, and better understand the superior services Gwinnett delivers to our community. Register in advance.

All tours are open to the public, and individually packed lunches will be provided. If you are interested in scheduling a group tour, contact Outreach@GwinnettCounty.com or call 770.822.3914.

Visit our website, social media for latest COVID-19 news

To stay up to date on the County's response to the COVID-19 pandemic, visit our website, GwinnettCounty.com or follow us on Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram @GwinnettGov.

Communications Division
770.822.7180
www.gwinnettcounty.com

Follow us on

