Los solicitantes pueden presentar su solicitud en persona en una de las instalaciones de la Biblioteca Pública del Condado de Gwinnett.

Commissioner Ku hosts town hall tonight

Commissioner Ben Ku is hosting a town hall today, September

8 from 5:00pm to 6:00pm in the community room at Lucky Shoals Park. Attend to learn about recent changes to the County's contract with solid waste haulers, updates about SPLOST and details about the referendum on the November ballot, and more about the upcoming election. Stay until the end for an opportunity to have your questions answered.

Lucky Shoals Park is located at 4651 Britt Road in Norcross. If you can't attend in person, you can also join remotely through Webex.

Gwinnett Coalition launches resource to improve health equity

The Gwinnett Coalition recently launched GwinnettHealthFinder.org, a web-based tool designed in partnership with GNR Public Health, to help improve health equity and access to quality health care for Gwinnett's uninsured and underinsured population.

Gwinnett Health Finder allows users to quickly locate health care providers by city, zip code, or service category, including adult, pediatric, mental health, dental, and specialty care.

County remembers September 11 with virtual ceremony

On Sunday, September 11, tune in as we remember the lives lost on September 11, 2001, with a virtual ceremony. The ceremony will air on Facebook @GwinnettFire at 8:30am. It can also be viewed on TV Gwinnett.

In addition to the virtual program, Gwinnett Fire and Emergency Services will lay a remembrance wreath at the Fallen Heroes Memorial in Lawrenceville for residents who'd like to pay tribute in person.

County departments present budget requests for 2023

Before Chairwoman Nicole Hendrickson compiles her proposed 2023 budget, residents get a chance to weigh in on county government priorities. Gwinnett County department directors and elected officials presented their 2023 business plans to a Citizens Review Team. The business plans are also available on the County's government access channel TV Gwinnett.

Chairwoman Hendrickson and the group will now analyze the needs of departments and agencies that provide services to Gwinnett residents and businesses and recommend funding priorities from the viewpoint of a resident.

Assessor's Office conducting onsite property field visits

Gwinnett Board of Assessors appraisal staff routinely conduct field visits to maintain accurate appraisal data as part of the County's annual review process. They verify existing or new construction, measure exteriors, and take photographs. Inspectors from Gwinnett County, LMC, or Tyler Technologies carry identification on field visits and will announce their presence before beginning a review.

Residents' privacy and safety are our top priority. No contact or involvement is needed. If no one is available, information will be left to advise you of the visit. For questions or concerns, call 770.822.7200 or email Taxpayer.Services@GwinnettCounty.com.

Property tax bills due November 1

The 2022 Gwinnett County property tax bills were mailed in September and are due Tuesday, November 1. If you have an escrow account, your property tax information is made available to your mortgage company. However, it is your responsibility to ensure taxes are paid.
