for Neighborhoods

A newsletter for Gwinnett County homeowners

March 3, 2023

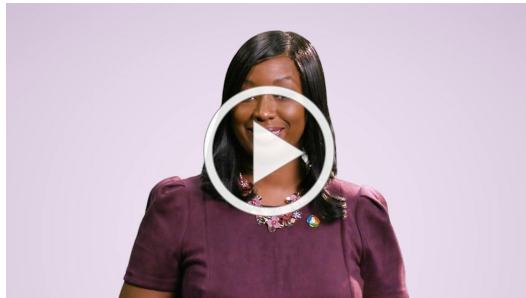

Greetings!

As a resident of Gwinnett County, you know there is always a lot going on in the community. Read this newsletter to stay up-to-date on the latest news from your County government.

Gwinnett County Government appreciates your help keeping your neighbors informed by sharing the following information through your homeowner association newsletter, website, and emails and by talking to your friends and family.

What's new on TV Gwinnett?

Gwinnett County brings you the latest news and happenings about your community.

March 1 marked the start of Women's History Month. Watch as Chairwoman Nicole Hendrickson kicks off the monthlong celebration.

Check out more videos on TV Gwinnett Video on Demand.

Chairwoman Hendrickson delivers the State of the County Address

In her third State of the County address, Chairwoman Nicole Hendrickson remarked on how the County ensures today's decisions will build tomorrow's solutions by being thoughtful, purposeful, and deliberate. Hendrickson cited Gwinnett's ability to maintain its Triple AAA/Aaa bond rating, the establishment of the Housing and Community Development Division, and the opening of The Water Tower to better serve our community.

Visit GwinnettCounty.com/SOTC to watch the address and learn more about our 2022 accomplishments and 2023 vision.

Attend a Ride Gwinnett Idea Lab

Reimagine the future of public transit at a Ride Gwinnett Idea Lab on Saturday, March 4 from 10:00am to noon. During the meeting, you can share your ideas for transit and work with the County on its Transit Development Plan.

Launched in spring 2022, Gwinnett's Transit Development Plan is evaluating both present and future transit needs and services provided by regional partners, including the Atlanta-Region Transit Link Authority and Xpress.

Gwinnett Police to address safety concerns at community meeting

The Gwinnett Police Department will be hosting a community meeting to discuss youth homicides and the number of overdoses among teens on Thursday, March 9 at 6:30pm in Norcross. Residents who have questions about police procedures or concerns about what's going on in their neighborhood are encouraged to attend.

The event will take place at the Universal Church located at 6081 Singleton Road in Norcross. Police Chief J.D. McClure and members of the command staff from West Precinct and Criminal Investigations will be part of the panel discussion. Spanish language assistance will be available.

Gwinnett Code Enforcement to host Clean Community Forum on March 16

Residents are invited to attend the Gwinnett Clean Community Forum on Thursday, March 16 at the Pinckneyville Park Community Recreation Center located at 4650 Peachtree Industrial Boulevard in Berkeley Lake. From 5:30pm to 7:30pm, attendees will hear presentations by Gwinnett Code Enforcement, Gwinnett Clean & Beautiful, and Gwinnett Transportation on the collective efforts of the County and residents to keep Gwinnett a safe, livable, and healthy community.

Attendees will have the opportunity to share their neighborhood successes and ask questions. For more

Gwinnett awarded federal grant to address roadway safety issues

Gwinnett County has been awarded $200,000 in federal funding through the U.S. Department of Transportation's Safe Streets and Roads for All grant program. The County will contribute a match of $50,000 for a total of $250,000 to create the Countywide Safety Action Plan, which will implement measures that prevent roadway deaths and injuries. This plan will aim at reducing motorist, bicyclist, and pedestrian fatalities on County-maintained roads and state routes.

The Gwinnett Department of Transportation has identified safety improvement projects through various ongoing planning efforts, including the Comprehensive Transportation Plan, the Safe and Equitable Access Study, and the recent voter-approved Special Purpose Local Option Sales Tax program.

Learn more about recycling in Gwinnett

Gwinnett is committed to recycling and to reducing the volume of waste going into landfills. Residents have several opportunities to recycle and dispose of unwanted items, including recycling curbside or at a glass recycling drop-off location. You can also attend an upcoming recycling event.
