A newsletter for Gwinnett County homeowners

June 8, 2023

Greetings!

We apologize for any inconvenience caused by the broken link in our previous email newsletter.

We want to provide you with the correct information and ensure you have access to the updated video content of "Eye on Gwinnett" from our section "What's New on TV Gwinnett."

Thank you for your understanding, and we apologize for any confusion this may have caused.

Gwinnett County Government appreciates your help keeping your neighbors informed by sharing the following information through your homeowner association newsletter, website, and emails and by talking to your friends and family.

What's new on TV Gwinnett?

Gwinnett County brings you the latest news and happenings about your community through Eye on Gwinnett, our weekly news program.

What you'll see in this episode:

- County honors Gwinnett's women veterans
- Former President Jimmy Carter honored alongside Jimmy Carter Boulevard
- Learn about upcoming Juneteenth celebrations
- Transportation hosts a series of community conversations
- Gwinnett Trails receives national recognition

Check out more videos on TV Gwinnett Video on Demand.

Learn about Gwinnett's transit and transportation recommendations

Gwinnett County is sharing recommendations for future transit and transportation enhancements through a series of upcoming conversations. This is an opportunity for residents to share their thoughts on preliminary concepts for bicycle facilities, multi-use paths and sidewalks, transit expansion, and other improvements across the county.

Here are the details of the upcoming events:

- Saturday, June 10, 10:00am to noon Dacula Park Activity Building, 2735 Auburn Avenue, Dacula
- Monday, June 12, 5:00pm to 7:00pm Peachtree Corners City Hall, 310 Technology Parkway, Peachtree Corners
- Tuesday, June 13, 5:00pm to 7:00pm OneStop Centerville, 3025 Bethany Church Road, Snellville
- Wednesday, June 14, 5:00pm to 7:00pm Lawrenceville City Hall, 70 S Clayton Street, Lawrenceville

Gwinnett has been working on plans since 2022 to improve transportation and safety. These plans are shaped by input from the public and stakeholders to guide the county's vision and priorities. For more information, visit GwinnettTransportation.com.

Rabid cat caught in Dacula area

Gwinnett County advises caution regarding unusual animal behavior after a rabid cat incident in Dacula on Tuesday, May 30. Ensure pets are vaccinated against rabies. Unvaccinated dogs and cats exposed to a rabid animal must be strictly quarantined for four months and vaccinated one month prior to being released.

If exposed, inform your medical staff and contact the Gwinnett County Health Department at 770.339.4260. Report and arrange pickup of the animal by calling Gwinnett Animal Welfare and Enforcement Bite Office at 770.339.3200 ext. 5576; after hours, call Dispatch non-emergency at 770.513.5700. Learn more about protecting your family from rabies.

Don't miss out on the Juneteenth celebration at Rhodes Jordan Park!

Join the United Ebony Society of Gwinnett and Gwinnett County Government in celebrating Juneteenth, a day of fun for the whole family! The event will take place on Saturday, June 17, from noon to 6:00pm at Rhodes Jordan Park in Lawrenceville. Juneteenth holds significant historical importance as the oldest celebrated commemoration of the end of slavery in the United States.

This year's Juneteenth festival will feature historical presentations, performances, music, games, and food trucks. Rhodes Jordan Park is located at 100 East Crogan Street in Lawrenceville.

Help us plan for the future of Gwinnett!

We have exciting events this summer where you can share your ideas for improving our communities in Gwinnett. Join us at the Daily Community Café interactive workshop on Wednesday, June 21, from 5:00pm to 7:00pm at the Centerville Senior Center in Snellville to help brainstorm ideas for community improvement.

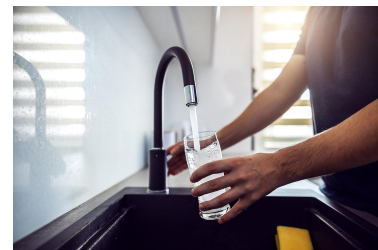

Want to learn how infrastructure can keep Gwinnett green and healthy? Join us on Wednesday, June 28, from 6:00pm to 8:00pm for the Speak Up! speaker series at the Aurora Theater, Cabaret Room 124, in Lawrenceville. National experts will talk about innovative solutions that could be implemented in Gwinnett. To learn more about the 2045 Unified Plan and upcoming events, visit GwinnettCounty.com/2045UnifiedPlan.

Consumer Confidence Report now available

The annual Consumer Confidence Report, which contains vital information about the quality of your drinking water, is now available. The report provides comprehensive details on the results of state and federally mandated tests conducted to identify potential contaminants.

We are pleased to announce that in 2022, there were no violations of the EPA Safe Drinking Water Act to report. Visit GwinnettWaterWords.com to review the report and gain further insight.

Join us for Gwinnett's annual Pride Party on June 28!

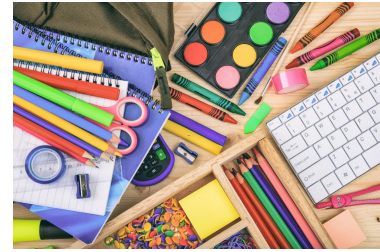

Come celebrate the contributions and accomplishments of Gwinnett's LGBTQ+ community at our annual Pride Party. The event will take place on Wednesday, June 28, from 11:00am to 1:00pm at the Gwinnett Justice and Administration Center Plaza, located at 75 Langley Drive in Lawrenceville. Get ready for a fantastic time with food trucks, DJ Sed the Saint, and a proclamation from the Gwinnett Board of Commissioners recognizing Pride Month.

To ensure you receive food and dessert tickets, registration is required. Please RSVP by Friday, June 23, at GwinnettCounty.com/PrideParty.

Gwinnett Police organizes back to school supply drive to support students

Get ready for the new school year! Gwinnett Police Department is here to support families and help students succeed. Join us for our back-to-school supply drive, running until Friday, July 28. You can drop off donations Monday through Friday between 8:00am and 5:00pm. We're accepting various items like backpacks, pencils, notebooks, hand sanitizer, and more!

Look for donation boxes at Gwinnett County Police Headquarters, Gwinnett County Police Training Center, and all Gwinnett County police precinct lobbies. Find your nearest precinct at CGA.us/PolicePrecinct. For more details, call Gwinnett Police at 678.422.6520.

SPLOST: The Gwinnett Environmental and Heritage Center gets an update

Since 2006, the Blue Planet Exhibit film has been one of the most popular attractions for school-aged children and residents, providing valuable lessons on the water cycle, habitats, constructive and destructive forces, and weather.

The film will receive an update to bring it up to date with current data and happenings around the county, like research initiatives at the Water Tower. The $300,000 project is funded by the 2014 and 2017 SPLOST programs.
