“I would design a walkable community with lots of greenspace, community gardens, highlighting green infrastructure and our connection with nature. ...

Also, the redevelopment will preserve the small international businesses and the rich immigrant culture this area is known for. ...

*Connect trails to McDaniel Park, Duluth downtown, and future parks and trails. Offer large transit options to replace driving culture.”

Neighborhood Services: Possible Approaches

Neighborhood Services

Support existing and new Gwinnettians as the County grows and becomes increasingly diverse

Dedicate space within the redeveloped mall to provide community services, in multiple languages:

- Affordable childcare and programming for youth, including educational and recreational activities.
- Services for seniors, with transportation for those without access to cars or public transportation.
- Services for immigrants, including support with obtaining ID, ESL programs, finding housing, etc.
- Support with accessing healthcare, including dental and mental health services, vaccinations.
- Support with food access, including enrolling residents in SNAP benefits, emergency food distribution.
- Job training and skill building.

Jobs: Current Challenges

Most residents near the mall work outside of the area and have lower-paying jobs than those offered near the mall.

93%
of people who work near the mall live elsewhere.

Jobs by Earnings (2018)

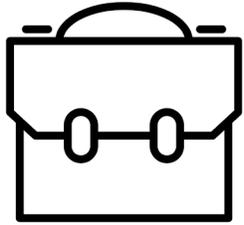

According to the 2019 Gwinnett Community Health Needs Assessment:

Hispanic residents felt that “there were not enough jobs in the county and that the jobs that were available were minimum wage...

This created a problem with affordable housing because the cost of rent and utilities goes up every year; the wages don't keep up with the cost of living. The comment was made that undocumented people in the community usually only made minimum wage.”
