

GWINNETT COUNTY POLICE DEPARTMENT
VICTIM'S RIGHTS NOTIFICATION

The information provided below is intended to assist you in locating and receiving the services you are entitled to as a victim/witness of a crime. It is important that you take advantage of these services to help cope with both the short and long-term consequences of being a crime victim. At any time, if you are threatened, harassed, or intimidated by a suspect or perpetrator, please call 911 for assistance.

In compliance with OCGA 17-17-6, Gwinnett County Police Department is providing this information to you.

- 1) The person accused of criminal activity toward you may be released from custody before trial. This is commonly known as "bonding out."
- 2) As a victim, you have certain rights during various stages of the criminal justice process. Depending on which court has jurisdiction in your case, either the District Attorney's Office or the State Court Solicitor's Office will notify you of your rights and explain to you the judicial process as it pertains to your case. Office hours for the District Attorney's Victim Witness Program are Monday through Friday, 8:30am to 5:00pm. Their telephone number is (770)822-8444. Office hours for the State Court Solicitor's Victim Services Program are 8:30am to 4:30pm, Monday through Friday. Their telephone number is (770) 822-8300. Information of Victim/Witness services may also be found on the Gwinnett County Government website GwinnettCounty.com. Click on "Departments" and then click on "District Attorney" or "Solicitor."
- 3) As a victim, you may be entitled to monetary compensation for certain out-of-pocket losses incurred as a result of your victimization. You can contact the Criminal Justice Coordinating Council at (404) 559-4949 or (404) 559-4177 TDD for further information or visit their website at www.state.ga.us/cjcc/contact.html.
- 4) You, as a victim, may be eligible for community-based victim service programs. More information about the programs can be obtained by contacting the Governor's Victim Assistance Helpline at (800) 338-6745. A partial listing of Gwinnett County area service agencies is shown on the back of this page.

In order for you to be able to receive these services you must provide to the Gwinnett County Police Department, the prosecutor's office, and the incarcerating agency your current address and telephone number. A pager number is NOT sufficient for this purpose.

You will be notified when the accused has been arrested if this has not already occurred. This notification will be in person, by telephone or by mail by the arresting Law Enforcement Agency. Should the suspect or the suspect's companions or family threaten, intimidate or harass you in any way then you should dial "911" and notify law enforcement immediately. You may also call and report the incident to the investigating officer or to the Victim/Witness Services of the District Attorney's Office or Solicitor's Office.
