Proclamation

RECOGNIZING REPRESENTATIVE JASMINE CLARK'S SERVICE

May 5, 2026

WHEREAS, Gwinnett County thrives through the dedication of public servants who commit their time and effort to advocacy, equity, and the delivery of superior services to our residents; and

WHEREAS, Longtime Gwinnett County resident Dr. Jasmine Clark built a foundation of professional expertise as a scientist, receiving her bachelor's degree in microbiology from the University of Tennessee and her PhD in microbiology and molecular genetics from Emory University, where she now serves as an assistant clinical professor; and

WHEREAS, In 2018, she channeled her passion for science and helping others into public service and was elected to represent District 108 in the Georgia House of Representatives; and

WHEREAS, For seven years, Representative Clark has served District 108, including residents in the Lilburn and Mountain Park areas of Gwinnett County, championing science and compassion in the legislative process; and

WHEREAS, In January 2025, Representative Clark was elected chair of the Gwinnett County House Delegation, becoming the first woman and Black woman to hold the position; and

WHEREAS, In that role, Representative Clark continues to address the needs and concerns of Gwinnett residents, collaborate on policy initiatives, and advocate for the county's interests in state legislation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Ben Ku, do hereby recognize Representative Dr. Jasmine Clark for her service to District 108 in the Georgia House of Representatives. As she prepares to step down from this role, I offer my sincere gratitude for her years of dedication to our county and our people.

Proclamation

RECOGNIZING PUBLIC HEALTH DAY

May 16, 2026

WHEREAS, Public health plays a vital role in protecting and improving the well-being of Gwinnett County residents through health education, community-based interventions, and the prevention of chronic and infectious diseases; and

WHEREAS, The 2026 Public Health Day theme, "Prevention is Power – Healthy Gwinnett, Stronger Gwinnett," supports a robust public health infrastructure that is essential to safeguarding our community through timely screenings, immunizations, and proactive health monitoring; and

WHEREAS, Gwinnett County encourages all residents to take proactive steps toward prevention by attending local health fairs, adopting healthy lifestyle practices, and seeking credible health information to protect their families and neighbors; and

WHEREAS, GNR Public Health, alongside partners across our community, works tirelessly to expand access to wellness screenings, vaccinations, and emergency response efforts; and

WHEREAS, Collaboration among County leadership and community partners demonstrates our shared commitment to advancing policies that strengthen public health and deliver superior services for all; and

WHEREAS, Fostering the next generation of public health leaders through youth engagement and mentorship is essential to sustaining a resilient workforce and building a community where everyone thrives.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nicole Love Hendrickson, on behalf of the Gwinnett County Board of Commissioners, do hereby proclaim May 16, 2026, as Public Health Day in Gwinnett County. I encourage all residents to participate in local health initiatives and educational programs that strengthen our community's health and vitality.

Signed this 5th day of May, 2026

Proclamation

RECOGNIZING MENTAL HEALTH AWARENESS MONTH

May 2026

WHEREAS, Since 1949, the National Association for Mental Health has recognized May as Mental Health Awareness Month to combat stigma, provide support, educate the public, and advocate for policies that assist people in the U.S. living with a mental illness; and

WHEREAS, Millions of people face stigma related to the emotional challenges, mental disorders, and psychosocial disabilities they experience. People living with a mental illness often feel isolated due to shame that discourages seeking proper treatment; and

WHEREAS, Mental health disorders account for more disability than any other illnesses, including cancer and heart disease, reflecting the urgent need to address mental health needs in communities like Gwinnett; and

WHEREAS, Recovery for youth and adults is possible; and

WHEREAS, Numerous community partners, like GUIDE Inc., help increase access to mental health support by providing comprehensive, coordinated mental health services among children, youth, young adults, and families in our community; and

WHEREAS, Gwinnett County Government and its mental health partners are committed to creating a community where everyone feels empowered to receive the mental health support they deserve and to end the stigma.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nicole Love Hendrickson, on behalf of the Gwinnett County Board of Commissioners, do hereby proclaim May 2026 as Mental Health Awareness Month in Gwinnett County. I encourage every resident to learn the signs of mental health challenges and actively prioritize emotional well-being in their daily lives.

Chairwoman
Board of Commissioners
Gwinnett County, Georgia

Signed this 5th day of May, 2026

Proclamation

RECOGNIZING OLDER AMERICANS MONTH

May 2026

WHEREAS, May is designated as Older Americans Month across the United States to recognize the invaluable contributions of older adults; and

WHEREAS, The 2026 Older Americans Month theme, "Champion Your Health," invites older Americans to take an active role in their well-being through preventive care, informed health decisions, and personal advocacy; and

WHEREAS, Recognizing seniors as an influential and vital segment of our population, Gwinnett County encourages older Americans to remain active in our communities and connects older adults to tools that support their health, socialization, and overall well-being; and

WHEREAS, Gwinnett County provides safe and healthy environments for all senior center, park, transit, and facility users to take charge of living a healthier, active lifestyle with a focus on independence; and

WHEREAS, Gwinnett County also offers a diverse array of workshops — from chair yoga and fitness days to chronic disease prevention — that promote personal health advocacy and empower residents to manage their active lifestyles; and

WHEREAS, Healthy aging begins with awareness and community engagement, further reinforced by evidence-based programs such as our senior wellness expos, health fairs, and Live Healthy Gwinnett initiatives.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nicole Love Hendrickson, on behalf of the Gwinnett County Board of Commissioners, do hereby proclaim May 2026 as Older Americans Month in Gwinnett County. I encourage all residents to join us in celebrating Gwinnett's older adults.

Proclamation

RECOGNIZING WATER SAFETY MONTH

May 2026

WHEREAS, Swimming and aquatic activities contribute to physical and mental health and enhance quality of life; and

WHEREAS, Water safety education is critical to protect residents as they engage in these beneficial activities and to prevent water-related emergencies, including injuries and fatalities in recreational areas, lakes, rivers, and other bodies of water; and

WHEREAS, Drowning remains a leading cause of injury-related death for children, with nearly 800 children in the United States drowning each year; and

WHEREAS, Gwinnett County Government and Safe Kids Gwinnett have joined community stakeholders like the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, YMCA of Metro Atlanta, Greater Atlanta Water Safety Alliance, American Red Cross, and Children's Healthcare of Atlanta to provide accessible aquatic instruction and lifesaving safety education; and

WHEREAS, Residents are encouraged to follow safe swimming practices, including supervising children at all times, never swimming alone, and maintaining proper barriers to protect children and pets from unattended water sources; and

WHEREAS, As summer nears and water-related activities increase, Gwinnett County recognizes May as Water Safety Month to focus attention on providing effective information and programs to residents of all ages.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Nicole Love Hendrickson, on behalf of the Gwinnett County Board of Commissioners, do hereby proclaim May 2026 as Water Safety Month in Gwinnett County. I urge all residents to prioritize water safety, embrace the resources offered by the County and our dedicated partners, and work together to ensure a safe aquatic environment for everyone.
