{Action: Approval; Motion: Woodward; Second: Williams}

4. Proposed dates and locations for Sept, Oct, and Nov meetings offsite

September 20, 6pm- Grace Snellville, 1400 Dogwood Rd

Format: designed for students/parents

Major Land (South Precinct, Q and A with Chief, (cruiser/vehicle information, helicopter)

October 11, 6pm- New Mercies, Lilburn. Upon motion by Murdock there was a vote to move the meeting to Oct 11, 2022 pending availability of New Mercies. This is to avoid overlapping with early voting.

November 15, 6pm- Peachtree Corners (Community Chest room), Confirmed by Nichols.

December 13, at 6pm- GJAC Auditorium. M. Cole requested that someone from County Communications come to the December meeting to explain the process of departments using social media.

5. Public Comment

The floor was once again opened for public comment, to which there was no response.

Member Comment

Andy Morgan- Comments about county survey- did not see many questions that addressed personal satisfaction

911 call center-busy line. Chief says stemming attrition of 911 call center is his top priority. Also had a reduction in applications. (raised salaries, sign-on bonus)

Cathy Nichols- recommended that Chevy speak to the person presenting from communications to give a young person's perspective.

Ruth- Recommend that any recommendations that cost money should be done in May for budget reasons

Marqus Cole- new crisis 988 number wants to talk about it.

Chevy Vincent- wants email/information on current communications/social media efforts

Tony Williams- to prepare for community meetings: prepare to answer questions regarding police department and school.

6. Adjournment

Final end time of 7:10 pm.

{Action: Approval; Motion: Nichols; Second: Vincent}
