ADDENDUM #1

RP030-14

Commercial & Industrial Valuations & Corresponding Assessment Administration
Functions on a Multi-Year Contract

This addendum is being issued to provide answers to questions received and to provide clarification.

- Q1. Are all income producing properties currently being valued by the income approach?
A1. Approximately 95% of all income producing property is being appraised via the income approach.
- Q2. Are the properties that are valued by the cost approach using Marshall & Swift valuations? If so, does the County currently purchase Marshall & Swift commercial estimator? Is the estimator current and are the tables in ProVal current? If so, does the County plan to continue current valuation on the cost approach from the commercial estimator?
A2. The County's CMA system interfaces with the M & S Black Box Cost Estimator System. The decision to update the tables to current basis will be made near the calendar year end of each tax year.
- Q3. Is the current income model in place where properties of similar characteristics can be valued by placing the property in ProVal? Is the income model in Pro Val current?
A3. The model is in place in ProVal. Defining new properties and updating changes to the model is an annual process – if needed.
- Q4. Is the successful vendor going to have the vehicle insurance limits and Gwinnett County listed as additional loss payee?
A4. Yes.
- Q5. Will the County or the service provider supply the Land Value forms, Marshall & Swift Data Collection forms, Income forms and Expense Modeling forms?
A5. Yes.
- Q6. What is the historical number of properties updated each year?
A6. 2014 – 288; 2013 – 595 (several small); 2012 - 286
- Q7. Is the approximate amount of vacant parcels, updated each year, constant?
A7. No – splits creating vacant parcels were few in 2009 thru 2012. 2013 – 305 parcels either new or containing new construction; 2014 – 378 parcels either new or containing new construction. 2015 may have a few more - dependent on economy.

Q8. Page 5, paragraph G: Is any of the manufactured home data (make, model, size, year built, etc.) currently in the ProVal system?

A8. Yes. Summary report attached.

Q9. Page 5, paragraph G: Is a data collection/measure and list and photo expected for each manufactured home on the report in the first year and new adds in subsequent years?

A9. Photo required only on the property where site visit is required. Examples: limited to not enough data in file, reviewing the real property of the MH Park or when preparing to defend the MH value in the appeal process.

Q10. Page 5, paragraph G: Would it be possible to receive a copy of the current non-homestead report?

A10. Summary report attached. Several of the descriptions (especially older models) are not complete – be prepared to use the best information available.

Q11. What is the total number of parcels the contractor would be responsible for?

A11. All of them assigned.

Q12. For the following duties, how many appraisers and for how many months were assigned to the project? Does the County feel this staff was sufficient and if not, what staffing level would you prefer to see?

- a. Administration of sales validation & review -
- b. Valuation of a vacant parcel
- c. Valuation of an improved parcel
- d. Returns reviewed with value recommendation
- e. Appeals processing
- f. Manufactured home valuation

A12. Current contractor has had 5 appraisers and 1 admin assistant in this office for each of the prior years. County accepts this level for most of the year.

Q13. Please verify that this project timeline is correct:

January 1 – June 31	Validity of Sales
January – March	Complete Tax Returns
April 10	Mail New Value Notices
April 10 – June 1	Informal Appeals
June 2 – Dec. 15	BOE Appeals
Nov. 15 – March 15, 2016	Pick up new construction
By Dec. 1, 2015	Manufactured Homes Valued

A13. Correct for approximate dates. Each could vary +/- a week or so.

Q14. Please define the building type “Quad”?

A14. A residential rental property containing 4 living units. This is defined by GA DOR as commercial property.

Q15. How many commercial parcels are vacant?

A15. 2,934

Q16. Does the County do an annual re-assessment and send out new value notices every year?

A16. See Q6. The County is required to issue Notices of Current Assessment to every property on an annual basis.

Q17. Page 5, F: In the past, what has been the approximate number of parcels selected for the service provider to field review/re-assess? When were they last reviewed?

A17. 200 per year. Varying dates of prior review. We did a complete Commercial Property re-val (with inspections and updated values) for the 1999 tax year. Updated portions as required on an annual basis. We are not using geographic locations.
